BLOOD HORSE RACES. A Good Day and Track and Speedy Time

Made at San Jose. SAN JOSE, April 7th -- If they had been made to order to-day the weather and track could not have been improved for the second day's racing of the San Jose Blood Horse Association. The attendance was smaller than the opening day last Saturday, only about 500 visitors being present at the track. Some increase was noticed in the presence

Jubilee ran a strong race, but Daisy was in great shape and had no trouble in landing

At the breakaway Jubilee and Daisy were acting cranky at first, and they got the flag with Daisy well back. Raindrop made the running, with Oro second, to the eighthpole, Daisy still last. At the half Raindrop led Jubilee a length, Daisy last and the Republican Party. Carson (Nev.), April 7th.-The Carson Appeal, the leading Republican paper of the State of Nevada, advocates an open revolt in 1892 of all the States west of the Missouri river if a free coinage bill is not passed during the present session. It urges that these States should unite and demand absolute free coinage, or wing out of the Republican line in 1892, leaving the leaders to choose between the support of Wall street or the West. It says the silver bills now before Concress are becoming a mystery to the West, and the result is an uneasy feeling every-

DEADLY CIGARETTE. t Causes the Death of Several Boys in Portland. PORTLAND, April 7th .- Five boys who had been attending a variety theater went into a gulch in the south end of the city to leep about 10:30 this evening. They had made a bed of some old sacks, when one of them. Richard Mills, of Seattle, who was what appeared to be a bucket of dirt standing near. It proved to be powder, and the other boys hearing a hissing noise and seeing the stuff burn, started off. In a moment an explosion took place, blowing the roof off the building, instantly killing Mills and readfully burning the other boys, named ra Holdiman, Benny Palterson, Tom oight and Frank Zans. These boys have parents here, but are not subject to any parental restraint. Mills ran away from Seattle, he told the other bys, because his mother whipped him all the time, and he showed them welts on his back, which seemed to substantiate his statement. He had said to the boys that he wanted to die, he had been so cruelly treated. He is so badly burned that he is unrecognizable. The other boys will probably survive.

It is supposed the powder came from a powder-house above town which was wrecked by the late flood, and from which much damaged powder was carried away. AGAINST DELMAS.

FLEEING TO THE HILLS. An Exodus of Foolish Believers in the Prophecy of Cranks.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7th .- According to Mrs. Woodworth, the Oakland prophetess. the disturbances which are to precede the earthquake of the 14th inst., commence today. She says that only two trains will leave Oakland for the East after to-day, as he seismic convulsions will at once interfere with railroad travel.

Yesterday a large number of believers in this city and Oakland left for the mountains, and it is expected that many more will depart to-day. It is estimated that at least two hundred have left the bay counties, most of whom are Swede and Norwe-gian women. Few of them say anything in regard to their belief, fearing ridicule, but they have quietly arranged their affairs and fled from the wrath to come. Some say they don't know whether the earthquake of the 14th will put in an appearance, but they do not propose to take the chances. It is stated that among this class is a Custom House clerk, who resides in Oakland. ### EASTERN ELECTIONS.

They are Held in Several States—The Is sues Mostly Local.
Columbus (Ohio), April 7th.—Returns from all but two precincts in this city show that the entire Democratic ticket is elected by from 1,200 to 1,500 majority. The Democrats also make great gains in the Council, and while that party will re-main in the minority, the body will be closer divided politically than for years. HARTEORD (Conn.), April 7th.-Henry

He Claims That Jesus Christ Appeared to Him in His Cell. AUBURN (N. Y.), April 7th.—Strange news comes from the lonely cell where William Kemmler, the wife murderer of Buffalo, awaits expiation of his crime, dead to law, and soon to sit in the electric chair which science has devised to rid the State of its assassins. He has been known as one of the hardest criminals ever in this State, and has until recently shown not the slightest evidence of a realization of the frightful crime he committed. He was a drunken brute, who killed a trusting wife. Since Wednesday he has been an absolutely changed man, being now as soft and tractable as the gentlest woman. It was just after 12 o'clock last Wednesday morning. The death watch, which had changed at midnight, suddenly heard the sound of voices in a cell, as if two men were talking. "Who are you up there?" Kemmler was saying. "What do you want The keeper rushed into the cell and asked the murderer what ailed him.

Kemmler pointed to the ceiling and said 'I saw a man up there, who said that he was Jesus Christ. He had such a good face, and he said to me that he would for give all my sins. 'Trust in me,' he said and I will never forsake you. Kemmler now spends all his time in singing and holding conversations with this person whom he claims to see in the Augusta (Ga.), April 7th.-One of the most peculiar combination marriages ever celebrated in this country took place here yesterday, when Charlie Lee, a Chinaman, was married to Miss Ida Lepinsky, a rather pretty Russian girl. The Chinaman is wealthy and owns a grocery store in Savannah, where all his countrymen pro-

Shortly after Miss Lepinsky came home Charlie was informed that he had compromised himself, and, according to custom, must make the amende honorable. the carpenter work on nearly all the large jobs is brought to a standstill. The strike s for eight hours as a day's work and wages at 40 cents an hour. No trouble i reported from any quarter yet. To-night it is estimated that about 7,000 men are out. In some places the brick layers went out with the carpenters out of sympathy, and it is reported the entire body of bricklayers will be called out unless the trouble is settled within a week.

In any event nearly all the other building trades will have to stop work soon unless the carrenters' strike is settled. In that event 50,000 men will be idle Some contractors wishing to complete the work on hand to-day offered to accept the men's terms, but the Brotherhood is after the Builders' Association and refuses to let anyone return to work until that body has reorganized the Union.

THE OAKLAND CRAZE.

The misguided people who follow the lead of the sensational preacher, Mrs. Woodworth, and are fleeing from Oakland to the mountains and the foothills, are to be more pitied than blamed. That they are sincere in their belief that Mrs. Woodworth is a prophet of God, and has been vouchsafed a glimpse into the near future, there can be no doubt. Like thousands of other infatuated beings led away by religious frenzy, they are but repeating history their ascension robes ready and donned; but the globe still swings in its orbit, and no sign has been given that the continuity of natural law is to be broken. The conception that these Oakland people have of God is one far below the level of pure religion. It conceives the Creator to be a being visiting upon the children of men vengeances and wrath by special dispensation, and punishing here and there a few with swift anger, while permitting more sinful creatures to escape. Why Oakland and San Francisco have been selected for destruction in the coming week, Mrs. Woodworth does not explain. That these cities are more wicked than others is not claimed, or that they are more deserving of the awful visitation said to impend is not charged. We are simply told that God the Almighty, the Supreme and and All-Wise Ruler of the Universe, has given to this woman foreknowledge of an approaching wave that will whelm certain cities of the Bay and send half a million of people to a common grave. There is given to the believers in this prophecy no proof, save that of the maunderings of a parcel of people who claim to have seen, in a trance state, a mimic representation of the cataclysm that is prophesied by Mrs. Woodworth. There seems to have been no suggestion to the simple people led away by the false prophet, that frenzied imaginations, weak intellects and religious insanity or cunning deceit may have had a great deal to do with the trances and hysterical conditions of these "seers." Mrs. Woodworth is leading her flock to the mountains, and in the course of a few weeks they will come straggling

In his veto of the Saxton ballot reform bill Governor Hill has run afoul of the Democratic press in many parts outside of his own State. Here is the Philadelphia Record declaring, with a want of respect for the acumen and legal capacity of the mind of the Governor of the Empire State that is astounding probably to Mr. Hill, that his objections to the bill on constitutional grounds are hair-splitting and wholly unsatisfactory, and it adds that Governor Hill has stupidly butted his head against a stone wall. Really it begins to look as if something after the order of Republican independence and disposition to be original in thinking has been breathed in by the Democratic press. With the Chicago Herald telling the Wisconsin Democrats that they are asses and disloyal to the American principle, and the Philadelphia Record comparing the prospective Democratic nominee for the Presidency in '92 to a stupid old ram, it begins to look as if the Democratic press has issued a declaration of independence.

It could scarcely have been better or more pleasing to the eye. The tration was superior, gave fine support and the musical direction was good. One act for a few days at least. is sung and acted with entirely new scenery by J. R. Wilkins, and introduces an outwork of the Russian army on the Danube, and is a very effective "set." Mrs. Dr. Brune, Miss Maye Kewen, Mrs. George H. Hansbrow and Misses Pullman, Wheat, Kaibel, Young and Lynn had the leading parts for female voices, and Messrs. Carroll, Cohn, Millikin, Bruner and Blair the leading male singing parts. The piece week. ing male singing parts. The piece was better acted than sung; indeed the dramatic quality of Messrs. Blair, Carroll and Millikin gave to the opera character and spirit by their dramatic assumption of the roles strusted to them, Mr. Blair notably so, and Miss Kewen contributed very creditably in the same direction. That there should have been considerable timidity on the first night was anticipated, and that the second night will present the ladies and gentlemen more at ease, and as a result make the singing of the opera more spirited and the movement of the piece more rapid, is to be safely assumed. The floral favors were very numerous last evening, and all the the closing of the colleges and universities soloists were complimented with handsome in St. Petersburg, testify to the nervous pieces or large bouquets. The applause was liberal without being enthysication "Fatinitza" is not, of course, given with the abandon and comedy "vim" with certain administrative abuses in the Club some time since gave. But it is nevertheless a musical pleasure, has some eautiful quartets, though but one notable solo; is mirthful from beginning to end and gives the chorus full opportunity, and of which it avails. It is creditable acted and as for the persons engaged in it as solo-ists, it is to be said that they all did very much better than we had anticipated. The opera will be repeated to-night, and as second nights always do, even with professionals, this evening will present 'Fati-nitza' in better form than last night.

SAYS HE WAS "DOWNED." Mayor Comstock Thinks He Has Not

Had a "Fair Shake." During the session of the City Trustee yesterday a communication was received from Matt Coffey, Clerk of the Water ater. It is not the purpose, even if at the late hour when the performance concluded, appointed B. W. Cavananch and C. H. Low appointed B. W. Cavanaugh and C. H. Joy as clerks in accordance with the power vested in him by the law.

Mayor Comstock said he objected to the action, and claimed he should have some say in the matter of the selection of the clerks.

"I came down this morning," said the Mayor, "and it made me sort of mad to see two clerks in the Water Works whom I didn't know, and neither of them being men who do not make the stage and the of my selection. I thought I ought to have opera a study should so well handle those some say, and not be downed the way I

Man Dies on Horseback but Maintain His Seat. At the ranch of William Dixon, the well-known Cosumnes farmer, a singular instance of sudden death occurred yesterday forenoon. Mr. Dixon's brother, Michael S. Dixon, set out on horseback to drive up some cattle. He had been a sufferer from heart disease, and his brother tried to dissuade him from going, but as he insisted on so doing, it was deemed best to have his nephew accompany him.

Alvin Plummer, Overseer of the road district that embraces that locality, was coming to the city to transact some business with the Board of Supervisors, and saw the men driving cattle in the field near the road. Presently he noticed the elder Dixon rein up his horse, lean forward over the pummel of his saddle and remain in that position, the horse meanwhile standing quite still. Mr. Plummer though but concluded that he had an attack o bleeding at the nose. Young Dixon rode up and spoke to his uncle, who did not and informed Mr. Plummer that he be lieved his uncle was dead. Mr. Plummer drove into the field and over to where the horse and his immova ble rider were, and found that Mr. Dixon was really dead. He assisted the young man in lifting the body from the horse and placing it in the buggy, and then drove back with it to the Dixon ranch. ought to the city and buried on Thurs-

The Board then adjourned. GREGORY INTERFERES.

The ex-Mayor Stops the Proposed Mayor ality Election Contest. There will be no recount.

The promised revelations of wholesale frauds and miscounts at the recent election have gone off in smoke. Ex-Mayor Gregory will not sanction a recount, and emphatically asserts that even should a recount show that he had received a majority of the votes for First Trustee, he would decline to accept the office. It was a surprise to everybody when W. A. Anderson, Committeeman Nagele's attorney, made a statement to this effect in the Superior Court yesterday afternoon, and moved for a dismissal of the proceed-

VERY LIKE A TARTAR. A Supposed Crank Stands Off a Brace Policemen.

Yesterday morning an individual giving he name of C. W. Howard appeared at the police station and wanted to know the whereabouts of a roll of blankets he had losi two years ago. His actions were such as to indicate that he was not in his right mind, and the officers placed him in the big cell. He was not there long, however, before he commenced throwing about the tin cups and other articles in the cell, till at last it was resolved to take him to the County Jail, that he might be examined as to his sanity.

Officers Carroll and Franks undertook the task of escorting him thither, and he went along peaceably until the lime-yards were reached, on I street, between Fifth and Sixth. Here he suddenly sprang to one side, and grabbing two bricks, shouled: "Now, take me, you you whether I m crazy or not!' Neglect to Maintain a Cesspool Leads a Citizen's Arrest.

Sanitary and Building Inspector Starr yesterday arrested N. Zemansky for violatng the health ordinance. The latter owns property at 304 K street, which is rented out as a saloon and the arrest was made for the alleged reason that he does not maintain a cesspool, but permits the contents of two vault pipes in the rear of the saloon to be dumped upon the ground. This has been going on for some time, and the property owners adjoining the saloon, whose cellars are filled with sipage water, were at a loss to know whence came the lmost unbearable stench.

Mr. Starr's attention was called to the case, and upon examining the premises he found that the pipes leading from the vaults of the saloon emptied the waste matter upon the ground, whence it was carried into the adjoining cellars with the ipage water.

The Board of Supervisors convened yeserday forenoon for the April term. The first business brought up was the petition of H. C. Lawson and others for present.

E. W. Stickney and a number of other residents in the vicinity of the upper Stockton road, appeared before the Board and asked for assistance in graveling and putting that road in repair. They stated that they would stand half of the expense if the county would stand the other haif. They wanted the money drawn out of the general road fund.

District Attorney Bruner informed the Board, as well as the petitioners, that the law did not permit the drawing of any money from the general road fund for the various road districts unless the district funds were impoverished.

The Board then agreed that the improvements should be gone ahead with; that the money should be taken out of the district's fund, and when that fund was exnausted the Board would replenish it from the general fund. Recess was then taken.

At the afternoon session Mr. Tebbets moved that the Overseer of Road District No. 11½ be instructed to remove encroaching fences and straighten the road near Reynolds' farm, on the road leading from the Freeport road to the Riverside road. So Quarterly reports were filed by Road Overseers A. Van Maren of District No. 3, A. L. Warren of District No. 10, Bartin Daniel of District No. 15, and N. D. Hack of District No. 12. Mr. Hamilton, Overseer of Road District No. 11½, informed the Board that the proprietor of the Three-Mile House had dammed up an opening which he (Hamilton) had made in a ditch to prevent the overflowing of the road. The person referred to had threatened the Overseer with suit for damages, and he (the Overseer) desired to know what course to pursue.

The Board instructed Mr. Hamilton to despite the objections of the proprietor of the Three-Mile House. A communication was received from residents of Amador county who had occasion to traverse the Michigan Bar road, complaining that a gate is maintained across he road by a widow, shutting them out from an opportunity to reach Sacramento.

Mr. Tebbets moved that the matter be referred to the Committee on Roads, with power to act. Mr. Greer said the Road Overseer was the proper person to act in the matter. If he could not remove the obstruction then the Board might do something else. Mr. Tebbets amended his motion so as to There is on exhibition in the window of J street store an oil painting executed by struction within thirty days, and it was all they saw and heard during their rounds. On motion of Mr. Greer, the rules were suspended and the Board allowed the $500 agreed upon to meet the expenses of the iver improvement delegation now in Vashington soliciting Congressional aid for the improvement of the Sacramento and other rivers.

A. M. Plummer, Overseer of Road District No. 8, stated to the Board that there was very little money at his disposal, but that work was necessary that would probably cost some $600. He desired to know whether or not he would be permitted to incur any indebtedness for that purpose. Mr. Tebbets informed Mr. Plummer that he rule adopted by the Board was inended to prevent Overseers from running heir districts into debt without the knowledge of the Supervisors, who in the past were frequently surprised by being in-formed that certain district funds were bankrupt. When the Board was informed as to the exigencies of any particular case it would not object to granting the relief lesired. Besides, this being election year, it was desired to avoid the trouble of having road district funds exhausted before new Overseers should come in. Mr. Greer spoke to the same effect, and Overseer Plummer went on to explain the ondition of the roads in his district and the work necessary to be done. He said he had paid for certain work in his district that should have been paid for out of the general road fund.

Chairman Ross informed Mr. Plummer that this was his own fault. After some further discussion, Mr. Tebbets moved that Mr. Plummer be instructed to proceed and do the necessary work on his roads. It was so ordered. A petition was read from tax-payers and residents of Folsom asking the Board to order certain streets and highways in that town opened. Referred to the Committee on Roads and Bridges. The streets mentioned in the petition are: Persifer, from Sibley to Forest; Burnett, from S. V. R. R. to Bidwell street. and Forest street, from S. V. R. R. to Bid-Clerk Hamilton read from the records of the Supervisors in August, 1861, showing that Persifer street was then declared

Court Again. The examination of Thomas Cree, accused of embezzling two horses and a wagon from A meeting of the brigade, regimental and an old man named Davidson-the particu-Union-was resumed in Justice of the Peace Henry's Court yesterday.

The detendant produced several witnesses who swore that they had heard Davidson say that he had sold the team to Davidson, however, stated that he had never said anything of the kind, and furthermore had never seen these witnesses. Cree made a trifle more presentable appearance than he did on Saturday, on which occasion he was so drunk and so noisy that Judge Henry had to adjourn Court and send defendant to jail to sober up. Cree testified that he had purchased the team from Davidson for $100, but had sold it again last Friday for $50 to an Italian, whose name he could not remember. Assistant District Attorney Bruner, who was conducting the prosecution, tangled the witness considerably on cross-examination, and Judge Henry made him still more uncomfortable by inquiring into his motives for selling the team for $50. The prosecution put Mr. Adams, of the firm of Adams, McNeill & Co., on the stand. He stated that on Thursday last he overheard a quarrel between Cree and Davidson on Front street. Davidson demanded the return of his team, and Cree replied that he would return it provided Davidson would pay him something for reeding the horses for several months. Cree did not then claim the team as his own. Owing to the absence of several wit nesses, the case went over until to-day for

At noon the departments caused the throng in the grounds to swell temporarily, but the return of the men to their desks did not materially diminish the crowd, as steady sunshine kept calling out the children who had remained at home because of threats of rain. The crowd was unequaled. Many Senators and Members left the Capitol to view the scene.

RECIPROCAL TREATIES.

The New Compact With Mexico is Almos Completed. WASHINGTON, April 7th .- The Star says It is understood that the reciprocity treaty with Mexico is now about completed by the Secretary of State and representatives of Mexico, and the members of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations have been informed of its terms. It is expected by the party pilots that such treaties will be entered into between the United States and several of the American Republics. The Committee on Ways and Means are not, however, considering the proposition to the provisions in the tariff bill for reciprocity. Such a proposition was made to some of the Republican members of the committee, the idea advanced being to put provisions in the bill that certain imports rom Mexico; Central and South America may be admitted free of duty, in consider-ation of the removal by those countries of the duty on certain exports from this Members of the committee replied that this was a matter to be dealt with by treaty and not in a tariff bill. If the treaties are negotiated and ratified it is belived that there uld be no difficulty in securing necessary legislation with relation to duties, but no provision for reciprocity will be put in the aw in advance of a treaty.

It is understood that the President, Sec-Blaine and Speaker Reed have talked over the general subject.

Washington, April 7th.—This was eggrolling day, and at least 10,000 young Washingtonians, ranging from 3 years to 10, took possession of the White House grounds and held high carnival from 10 o'clock until 5.

Race lines, police lines and care lines were all obliterated, etiquette hid her face behind her veil tor awhile and conventional propriety stood outside of the park and hung a sad face over the railing. But there were no sad faces inside. All was joy, gayety, laughter, music, eggs and yellow stains.

In the senate.

Washington, April 7th.—Senator Evarts presented the resolutions of the New York Chamber of Commerce in the Senate to day, protesting against the pending bill for the census enumeration of Chinese as absurd, barbarous, un-Christian and cowardly, and also a memorial on the same subject from the American Missionary Association was presented by Davis.

the Senate based on such slender, technical and trifling grounds. He never had known the public will of a community to be thwarted and trampled under foot on such flimsy pretexts. He knew the flat had gone forth; he knew the Republican claimants were to be seated. Republican Senators would be sicker over the thing before they were done with it than he was. He had heard of an old fellow who went out. West to speculate in hogs. He bought a big drove and shipped them to New York. When he got to New York he found hogs cheaper there than in Ohio, so he shipped them back and sold them in Ohio. Some friend said to him: "Jim, you made a bad speculation." "Yes," said he, "I lost a good deal of money, but then I had the company of the hogs both ways." So he (Vance) thanked God that, in all future denunciations of the South for the suppression of colored votes, the Southern Senators would have the company of the hogs. [Laughter.]

Spooner, also a member of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, made an argument in favor of the majority report that Sanders and Power, the Republican claimants, are entitled upon the merits of the case to be seated. He would pass, he said, from the jokes of the Senator from North Carolina (Vance) and advert to the very able and ingenious argument of the Senator from Delaware (Gray). All the Senators agreed that the question was one of high privilege and of grave import and much delicacy. It affected not only the right of Montana to be represented in the Senate by men of her choice, but it affected also the dignity and integrity of the Senate. It should, therefore, be considered with judicial calmness and deliberation, freed as much as it might be from partisan bias and prejudice.

He knew it was not necessary to assure the Senate that it had been in that spirit that the majority of the Committee on Privileges and Elections had commenced and continued the consideration of the case. The Senator could, of course, only be elected by a State Legislature, and in order to seat a man in the Senate he must have been chosen by the Legislature, organized within the meaning of the Constitution, but it was not necessary. In his orinion, to go

In the course of his speech spooner alluded to the charge made by Senator Gray sgainst the President for undue haste in Issuing the proclamation for the admission of Montana, and he defended the President in that matter. The residents whole life, he said, was an ample efuntion of any such intimation. Spooner delded for the executive session, and the senate

Although still hoarse from an attack of la grippe, and disinclined to converse much, Senator Stanford looks and is in better health than when he left here a year ago. He says his nervousness has mostly disappeared and that he feels in tolerable condition. To a reporter who called he said:

eporter who called he said; "It is true that I shall present my resignation as President of the Southern Pacific Company at the meeting of the Board of Directors on Wednesday. The reason is simply that I cannot attend to my duties. The university and Senatorship consume so much of my time that I cannot meet with my associates and give them the assistance they require from one who occupies my position, and so at last they have agreed to consent to my retirement. The heavy rains of this winter have practically stopped work on the building, and we have lost four months' time. We had intended to begin operations next fall, but I consider it to be doubtful now whether that will be possible. I have all along intended to place the man-agement of the University in the hands of a man of tried experience, but the discovery of such a man is not so easy as I thought. There are plenty of fine educators in the country, but there are tew men who combine the business ability necessary to manage an institution of this kind with first-class educational capacity. Those who do are comfortably situated and have no desire to change their quarters. So I think it quite probable that we shall be compelled to select an untried man and create a great University manager, so to speak. In that event I shall take hold of the University myself and see that its business affairs are properly cared for. In a few days I shall visit Palo Alto and see how the work is progressing."

Senator Stanford said it was extremely improbable that Creed Haymond would retire from the law department of the company, but if he did finally succeed in inducing the Directors to accept his resignation ne would probably be succeeded by one of the regular attorneys for the company. Pectoral. Colds, Coughs, Croup, and Sore Throat are, in most cases, immediately relieved by the use of this wonderful remedy. It strengthens the vocal organs, allays irritation, and prevents the inroads of Consumption; in every stage of that dread disease, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral relieves coughing and induces refreshing rest. "I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral croup, to which complaint my children have been subject."—Capt. U. Carley, Brooklyn, N. Y. Brooklyn, N. Y.

"From an experience of over thirty years in the sale of proprietary medicines, I feel justified in recommending Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. One of the best recommendations of the Pectoral is the enduring quality of its popularity, it being more salable now than it was twenty-five years ago, when its great success was considered marvelous."—
R. S. Drake, M. D., Beliot, Kans.

"My little sister four years of ago "My little sister, four years of age, was so ill from bronchitis that we had almost given up hope of her recovery. Our family physician, a skilful man and of large experience, pronounced it useless to give her any more medicine; saying that he had done all it was possible to do, and we must prepare for the worst. As a last resort, we determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and I can truly say, with the most happy results. After taking a few doses she seemed to breathe easier, and, within a week, was out of danger. We continued giving the Pectoral until satisfied she was entirely well. This has given my published defit. well. This has given me unbounded faith in the preparation, and I recommend it confidently to my customers."—C. O. Lepper, Druggist, Fort Wayne, Ind.
